

Tayllor
Oyewole-
Davis

Published Poet | Performer | Writer
Educator

Founder of Sisterhood(verb), Inc.

Tayllor Oyewole-Davis is a dynamic educator, social impact strategist, and internationally recognized poet who bridges DEIB, creative expression, and community transformation. As the Founder of Sisterhood(verb), Inc., she designs culturally responsive training and content to uplift historically marginalized communities. With a background in curriculum development, public speaking, and marketing communications, Tayllor has led initiatives that foster belonging through arts-integrated programming, strategic community engagement, and equity-centered events. Her poetry, featured globally, explores identity and justice, while her consulting and teaching roles—ranging from The Riviera Ridge School to Bow Seat Ocean Awareness Programs—reflect a deep commitment to inclusive, sustainable change.

TEACHER 9+ YEARS

WRITER 12+ YEARS

PERFORMER 12+ YEARS

POETRY 15+ YEARS

 @SISTERHOODVERB  @SISTERHOODVERB  @SISTERHOODVERB

www.sisterhoodverb.com

www.tayllorjohnson.com

PHONE: 310-741-7500 • EMAIL: SISTERHOODVERB@GMAIL.COM

SISTERHOODVERB, INC.

Tayllor is the founder of Sisterhood(verb) Inc., where creativity and community come together! By integrating the arts with community engagement, Sisterhood(verb) helps educational spaces and organizations create sustainable opportunities for art and the community to flourish!

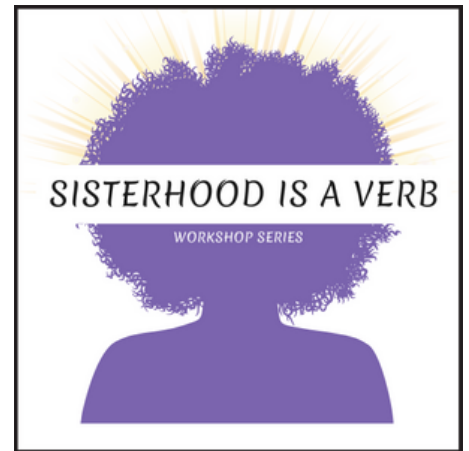

SIGNATURE PROGRAMS

Sustainable Community
Wellness Initiative

Poetry for Empowerment

Sisterhood is a VERB
Workshop Series

PARTNERSHIPS

POETRY & PRESS

Poetry

- Tayllor Johnson | Yo-Yo Ma Mourns | The Disruptive Quarterly
- Water Wednesdays Webinar: So You Want to Write Spoken Word Poem
- Water Wednesdays Webinar: Spoken Word and Environmental Activism
- Lemonade: A Woman's Narrative, Not a Man's Confession | University of Kansas College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- Sisterhood is a Verb | Mt. Holyoke College
- Black History Month 2024: The Obsidian Scholars Poetry Jam | Montecito Journal
- A Poem for Tupac | Makaveli's Army| VIBE.COM
- 2019 Visible Poetry Project | Alcoholism by Tayllor Johnson
- Spoken Black Girl Issue 5 | Motherhood
- She Taught Me to Stand on Her Shoulders | Five Myles Exhibition
- Water is Rising & Emergency Meditation | The Disruptive Quarterly
- Compton Museum Highlights Black and Brown Art and History

Press

- How To Spread Love: Tayllor Johnson Shares Her Light On Transformation
- Everyday People: Mount Holyoke graduate Tayllor Johnson finds passion in poetry | Mass Live
- Juneteenth Sparks a Harlem Renaissance in Solvang| Santa Barbara Independent
- Tayllor Johnson: Rhythm & Soul | SAMOHI
- Exploring Life and Business | Voyage LA
- Meet Tayllor Johnson | Canvas Rebel
- Finding Your Why | BOLD Journey
- Bow Seat Launches New Spoken Word Initiative in Partnership with Poet Tayllor Johnson

OFFERINGS

POETRY PERFORMANCE:

STARTING AT $2,000

- 30 minutes to 1 hour set
- Q&A (Optional)
- Workshop + Performance

PUBLIC SPEAKING/KEYNOTE:

STARTING AT $5,000

- Half-Day Seminar
- Professional Keynote Speaking
- Workshop Facilitation

WORKSHOP FACILITATION:

STARTING AT $7,000

- Multi-Day Workshop
- Professional Development Seminars
- Youth-centered or Women-centered creative workshops

SIGNATURE TOPICS

- ✓ Poetry Performance
- ✓ Creative Process
- ✓ Black Womanhood/Sisterhood
- ✓ Motherhood | Mental Wellness
- ✓ Community Care/Engagement
- ✓ Self-Care/ Self-Love
- ✓ Arts-Education

Please feel free to reach out for any questions.

Get In Touch!

✉ sisterhoodverb@gmail.com

🌐 www.sisterhoodverb.com

☎ 310-741-7500